

Descendants of John Chandler, Direct Ancestor of Robert Bailey Chandler

1 John Chandler, born circa 1600 in England, arrived at Jamestown in 1609/1610 aboard the Hercules and settled in Elizabeth City County (now Hampton VA). The Hercules was one of three ships in a fleet commanded by Lord Delaware, rather than one of nine ships in the Third Supply. He was listed as a servant to Thomas Willoughby in the muster of 1623/24 in a military outpost. John was granted land in Elizabeth City County. He later added land in Newport News. John's first wife's name is unknown; his second wife's name was Elizabeth, and she was probably the widow of Albiano Lupo, an Anglicized Italian from London. John Chandler was an Ancient Planter of Virginia, served as a court justice and was a member of the Virginia House of Burgesses in the 1640s.

Robert Chandler b 8/21/1720 VA lived in Henry County, VA (part of Pittsylvania County before the Revolutionary War) d Wilson Co TN 1805. *In Pittsylvania County Robert was a county justice, ordered road construction in the area, and served on the parish vestry along with John Donelson, the man who later led the Cumberland Expedition into Tennessee, and whose daughter, Rachel, married Andrew Jackson. Robert moved to Wilkes County NC by 1778, then went with son Josiah and other family members to Wilson County TN around 1800. Robert's son, Bailey (with wife Tabitha), moved to Newberry County SC. Bailey and family went from Newberry to Jackson County GA just after 1800.
