Notes

Thought to be a prisoner of war during the American War of Independence, and incarcerated in Mill Prison in Plymouth. A Francis TUPMAN is recorded in a letter from Mill Prison - manuscript from the Laurens Collection.

There are various records of a Francis:

14th. November 1763, a Francis TUPMAN filed a claim for taking up a "Runaway", a dividing line between the Counties of James C and New Kent.

Francis TUPMAN was an executor of the will of Francis BURGESS, executed on 15th. November 1767.

In the will of Richard HAILEY, executed on 20th. September 1774, in Westmoreland County (Westmoreland County Wills, 1654-1800) Hailey gives his gun to John, son of Frances TUPMAN.

On 26th. October 1778, Francis TUDMAN signed a petition requesting parishes to be changed from one County to another.

Lota GILL, in her Pedigree dated 1968, notes that the King George County Court records show her death as 1801, but I am unsure as whether this is the year of death or, like her husband, simply the official declaration. If the latter, then it is possible that she died at sea with her husband. A document from the Naval Archives says that Patsy survived her husband, and that she died "many years before 1834".

John was a ship's Captain and owned his own ship, the Peacock, named after the peacocks on the cabin wallpaper. He was a naval officer of the Virginia State Line during the War of Independence and possibly captured and imprisoned by the British and later exchanged. George Washington engaged the services of John and his ship, and he was lost at sea off the coast of Nova Scotia on a trip to Madagascar. His heiress Nancy and William, received substantial grants of land in Adair and Green Counties, Kentucky (grant signed by Isaac Shelby, Governor of Kentucky, 22nd. April 1796). John was officially declared dead in the Autumn of 1801.

John was also master of the "Manley" from 6th. October 1778 to (I think) 11th. September 1779, and the "Tartar" from November 1779 to January 1780 (source - The History of Virginia's Navy of the Revolution by Robert Armistead Stewart).

The South Carolina Historical and Genealogical magazine in 1906 mentions John, gives year of birth as 1750, and Francis as his father.

William SETTLES Snr. swore an Affidavit apparently for Pension proceeds for John TUPMAN, or for the land grant mentioned above, for Nancy, wife of Benjamin SETTLES, and her children (Archives, Washington D.C.). William may be Benjamin's father.

All SETTLES' marriages confirmed in the Green County, Kentucky, Marriage Records, 1793-1836.

William was commissioned Ensign on 1st June 1820 by the Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky, Gabriel SLAUGHTER.

There is a note that William may have married four times in total, but this is unsubstantiated.

There is a second marriage for William to Ann Farish, but this is thought to be for the William born in 1763. See later Endnote.

Also recorded as Nancy.

The Burying Ground was established in the will of William TUPMAN, dated 5th. March 1857.

Elected as a US Representative, but died before taking office.

Also named as Angella.

Source for all of family of Mary Ann Tupman is George East.

In 1968, Mitchell records James as living at 506, Wayne Drive, Fairborn, Ohio.

During World War I, James served as a Private in F Company of the 52nd. Infantry.

1860 Census shows Nancy living with her sister, Sarah Ann Garner GILL, in Lawrence County, Missouri.

Death may be incorrectly allocated.

My information shows the children's surnames as FEESE, but notes that they may been WATSON, which was the surname of the father

According to the chart produced originally by Mary O'BANION.

Family Bible has Samuel written, then erased and Frank substituted.

Family Bible has Joel as his given name.

Data from Lota GILL indicates that she married previously, but no former married name given.

Believed to be sister of Nellie Beatrice who married John GILL.

His grandmother, Nancy SALLE'E, was the sister of Anne SALLE'E who married George TUPMAN c 1792.

Date as given on Family Group sheet compiled by Lota GILL. On other correspondence date has been 30th. May 1861.

On his death, his brother William was made executor of the estate and guardian of his children - Caroline County court records. See the Will and Inventory for the Estate.

Birth dates for Nancy and Elizabeth are unknown. Dates for their brothers are established from Census returns.

Family Bible of William S. TUPMAN.

The Newark Directory of 1871 lists Sarah as widow of William.

Listed among the Confederate dead on the Rotunda at the University of Virginia. Paul attended the University for one term during 1861 and named his father as John M. TUPMAN of Essex County, Virginia.

Thomas George died in his residence, at age 29, at 4:00 o'clock, after a lingering illness of many weeks. He left a wife and two children (only one known). His obituary concluded as follows:

"In him, society has lost a kind neighbor, a charitable and most benevolent friend -- to which we may most aptly apply the following beautiful text"

“Met for the fellowship share.
He heard the call, arise my love.
I come, his dying voice replied,
And lamb-like as his Lord, he died.”

The 1860 Census of Winston County, Mississippi shows a son Robert aged 3 years. It is not known whether this is Mercer and, if so, w the name should be so mis-represented.

It is possible that this is the Francis that was incarcerated in Mill Prison during the War of Independence, as his age at the time would more acceptable for active service. Linus suggests that Francis could have been captured at the battle of Charlestown, South Carolina, by t forces of General Cornwallis, and subsequently repatriated in 1782/3.

Death notice published in the Virginia Herald of 29th. August 1810.

There is a letter dated 1820 and found in Campbell County, Kentucky, in which Thomas George gives power of attorney to a lawyer Virginia, to recover his father's estate, the father being William.

The 1830 Census for Kentucky lists Thomas George TUPMAN in Campbell County.

Linus Tupman gives the year as 1798, but Census information indicates 1793.

The Virginia Muster Roll 551 for the War of 1812 lists "Thomas G. TUPMAN, sub. for George P. HOPKINS". If the reference is to t Thomas George, the birth year of 1793 is more likely.

Listed in 1850 Census.

Not in 1870 Census.

Source - letter from William Stuart TUPMAN to Edgar Minter TUPMAN dated 29th. March 1947.

The town of Tupman, near Bakersfield, California, was named after Homer.

There is some doubt on the Christian names.

Mary J. in 1860 Census

Tracy's information says that his father may have been a Carpenter. Also a daughter, Margaret. Note that Washington Clevela TUPMAN (q.v.) had children Paul and Marguerite, and it is probable that this is the family.

The Virginia Herald of 10th. September 1823 reported:

" By the arrival of the schooner Sarah Ann, Captain Day (late Tupman) from Pensacola, which place she left on the 13th. Augu we are enabled to state some further particulars respecting the melancholy accident that lately befell that vessel. The Sarah Ann w bound from Kingston, Jamaica, to New Orleans, and made the land not far from Pensacola, at 5 a.m. on Saturday the 27th. July, a there came to an anchor in 5½ fathoms of water. Captain Tupman took the boat, with his wife and four men, with the intention landing. When within about 250 yards of the beach, a surf broke into the boat and capsized her, and all were drowned except Samt Davis, passenger, who saved himself by holding onto an oar. After reaching the shore, destitute of cloathing, having stripped himself in the water, he had to walk sixteen miles to Fort Barancas, where he got assistance, and went down to the beach, and found the bodies of the Captain and one of the men - the next day the wife of the Captain was found, and all buried as decently as the circumstances would admit. By the assistance rendered by the Captain of the fort, the vessel was conducted into Pensacola, where thro' the agency of the collector, a new crew was shipped to bring her home."

The biography of Washington Cleveland in the Kenton County, Kentucky library states that his paternal grandfather was Colonel Joel TUPMAN, who fought in the 1812 War and married a Miss Ferris. If correct, then this family is wrongly placed.

May be the Paul who married Sally TUPMAN, daughter of Samuel and Sarah Jane née Ellison.
